

1. What is the Purpose of this Document?

- 1.1. Military vs Cancer is committed to protecting the privacy and security of your personal information.
- 1.2. This privacy notice describes how we collect and use personal information about you during and after your working relationship with us, in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).
- 1.3. It applies to all those individuals and families we support.
- 1.4. Military vs Cancer is a “data controller”. This means that we are responsible for deciding how we hold and use personal information about you. We are required under data protection legislation to notify you of the information contained in this privacy notice.
- 1.5. This notice applies to current and former individuals and families we support / have supported. This notice does not form part of any contract of employment or other contract to provide services. We may update this notice at any time.
- 1.6. It is important that you read this notice, together with any other privacy notice we may provide on specific occasions when we are collecting or processing personal information about you, so that you are aware of how and why we are using such information.

2. Data Protection Principles

- 2.1. We will comply with data protection law. This says that the personal information we hold about you must be:
  - 2.1.1. Used lawfully, fairly and in a transparent way.
  - 2.1.2. Collected only for valid purposes that we have clearly explained to you and not used in any way that is incompatible with those purposes.
  - 2.1.3. Relevant to the purposes we have told you about and limited only to those purposes.
  - 2.1.4. Accurate and kept up to date.
  - 2.1.5. Kept only as long as necessary for the purposes we have told you about.
  - 2.1.6. Kept securely.

3. The Kind of Information We Hold About You

- 3.1. Personal data, or personal information, means any information about an individual from which that person can be identified. It does not include data where the identity has been removed (anonymous data).
- 3.2. There are “Special Categories” of more sensitive personal data which require a higher level of protection.
- 3.3. We will collect, store, and use the following categories of personal information about you: Personal contact details such as name, title, addresses, telephone numbers, and personal email addresses; Date of birth; Gender; Next of kin and emergency contact information; Bank account details; Photographs.

3.4. We may also collect, store, and use the following “special categories” of more sensitive personal information:

3.4.1 Information about your health, including any medical condition, health, and sickness.

4. How is Your Personal Information Collected?

4.1. Data is primarily collected from the individual via our Military vs Cancer grant application form and in requested supporting documentation

4.2. We may sometimes collect additional information from third parties including former employers or other background check agencies.

5. How We Will Use Information About You

5.1. We will only use your personal information when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we will use your personal information in the following circumstances:

5.1.1. In support of your application

5.1.2. Where we need to comply with a legal obligation

5.1.3. Where it is necessary for our legitimate interests (or those of a third party) and your interests and fundamental rights do not override those interests

5.2. We may also use your personal information in the following situations, which are likely to be rare:

5.2.1. Where we need to protect your interests (or someone else’s interests)

5.2.2. Where it is needed in the public interest

6. Situations in Which we will use Your Personal Information

6.1. We need all the categories of information in the list above primarily to allow us to perform our support to you and to enable us to comply with legal obligations. In some cases, we may use your personal information to pursue legitimate interests of our own or those of third parties, provided your interests and fundamental rights do not override those interests.

7. If You Fail to Provide Personal Information

7.1. If you fail to provide certain information when requested, we may not be able to support you.

8. Change of Purpose

8.1. We will only use your personal information for the purposes for which we collected it, unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another reason and that reason is compatible with the original purpose. If we need to use your personal information for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you and we will explain the legal basis which allows us to do so.

9. How We Use Particularly Sensitive Personal Information

9.1. "Special Categories" of particularly sensitive personal information require higher levels of protection. We need to have further justification for collecting, storing, and using this type of personal information. We may process special categories of personal information in the following circumstances:

9.1.1. In limited circumstances, with your explicit written consent

9.1.2. Where we need to carry out our legal obligations and in line with our Policy

9.1.3. Where it is needed to assess your capacity on health grounds, subject to appropriate confidentiality safeguards

10. Do We Need Your Consent?

10.1. In limited circumstances, we may approach you for your written consent to allow us to process certain particularly sensitive data. If we do so, we will provide you with full details of the information that we would like and the reason we need it, so that you can carefully consider whether you wish to consent. You should be aware that it is not a condition of our support that you agree to any request for consent from us.

11. Data Sharing

11.1. We may have to share your data with third parties, including third-party service providers.

11.2. We require third parties to respect the security of your data and to treat it in accordance with the law.

12. Why Might You Share my Personal Information with Third Parties?

12.1. We will share your personal information with third parties, where it is necessary to administer the working relationship with you or where we have another legitimate interest in doing so.

13. Which Third-Party Service Providers Process my Personal Information?

13.1. "Third parties" includes third-party service providers (including contractors and designated agents).

14. How Secure is my Information with Third-Party Service Providers and Other Entities in our Group?

14.1. All our third-party service providers and other entities in the group are required to take appropriate security measures to protect your personal information in line with our policies. We do not allow our third-party service providers to use your personal data for their own purposes. We only permit them to process your personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

15. When Might you Share my Personal Information with Other Entities in the Group?

15.1. We will share your personal information with other entities in our group as part of our regular reporting activities on company performance, in the context of a business reorganisation or group restructuring exercise, for system maintenance support and hosting of data.

16. Data Security

- 16.1. We have put in place measures to protect the security of your information. Details of these measures are available upon request.
- 16.2. Third parties will only process your personal information on our instructions and where they have agreed to treat the information confidentially and to keep it secure.
- 16.3. We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal information from being accidentally lost, used, or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed. In addition, we limit access to your personal information to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need to know. They will only process your personal information on our instructions, and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality.
- 16.4. We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected data security breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a suspected breach where we are legally required to do so.

17. Data Retention

- 17.1. How long will you use my information for?
  - 17.1.1. We will only retain your personal information for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting, or reporting requirements. To determine the appropriate retention period for personal data, we consider the amount, nature, and sensitivity of the personal data, the potential risk of harm from unauthorised use or disclosure of your personal data, the purposes for which we process your personal data and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal requirements

18. Rights of Access, Correction, Erasure and Restriction

- 18.1. Your duty to inform us of changes
  - 18.1.1. It is important that the personal information we hold about you is accurate and current. Please keep us informed if your personal information changes during your working relationship with us.
- 18.2. Your rights in connection with personal information
  - 18.2.1. Under certain circumstances, by law you have the right to:
    - 18.2.1.1. Request access to your personal information (commonly known as a “data subject access request”). This enables you to receive a copy of the personal information we hold about you and to check that we are lawfully processing it.
    - 18.2.1.2. Request correction of the personal information that we hold about you. This enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate information we hold about you corrected.
    - 18.2.1.3. Request erasure of your personal information. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal information where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove your personal information where you have exercised your right to object to processing (see below).

- 18.2.1.4. Object to processing of your personal information where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground. You also have the right to object where we are processing your personal information for direct marketing purposes.
- 18.2.1.5. Request the restriction of processing of your personal information. This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of personal information about you, for example if you want us to establish its accuracy or the reason for processing it.
- 18.2.1.6. Request the transfer of your personal information to another party.
- 18.2.2. If you want to review, verify, correct, or request erasure of your personal information, object to the processing of your personal data, or request that we transfer a copy of your personal information to another party, please contact Military vs Cancer in writing.
- 18.3. No fee usually required.
- 18.3.1. You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal information (or to exercise any of the other rights). However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request for access is clearly unfounded or excessive. Alternatively, we may refuse to comply with the request in such circumstances.
- 18.4. What we may need from you
  - 18.4.1. We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access the information (or to exercise any of your other rights). This is another appropriate security measure to ensure that personal information is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it.
  - 18.4.2. Right to withdraw consent
  - 18.4.3. In the limited circumstances where you may have provided your consent to the collection, processing and transfer of your personal information for a specific purpose, you have the right to withdraw your consent for that specific processing at any time. To withdraw your consent, please contact Military vs Cancer. Once we have received notification that you have withdrawn your consent, we will no longer process your information for the purpose or purposes you originally agreed to, unless we have another legitimate basis for doing so in law.
- 19. Changes to This Privacy Notice
  - 19.1. We reserve the right to update this privacy notice at any time, and we will provide you with a new privacy notice when we make any substantial updates. We may also notify you in other ways from time to time about the processing of your personal information.
